

Mick's Quiz of the Week Number 33

1. Who did John Landau produce in the 1970s, and call the future of "Rock and Roll"?
2. Which jazz singer died in 1959 of liver failure?
3. Who did the Chieftans record with on their first Album?
4. Peter Cetera was vocalist with which band?
5. Which Elvis movie featured the song "Can't help falling in love"?
6. Which British group's US LP cover was deemed in such bad taste in 1966 that 750,000 copies were recalled?
7. Which song refers to a bloody red rose lying crushed and broken in the virgin snow?
8. Who were Graham Russel and Russel Hitchcock?
9. Whose debut Album was "Isn't it grand boys" in 1966?
10. Which forename is shared by Paul McCartney's father and son?
11. Which group takes its name from a 1950s Betty Davis film?
12. Who is the song writing brother in law of the 1960's singer Julie Rodgers?
13. Which concert was a follow up to Live Aid and raised funds for the unemployed in Northern Ireland?
14. What were Roxy Music named after?
15. How is Vito Farinolla better known?
16. By what name is rapper Christopher Bridges better known?
17. R L Huggar, Terry and Raphael Brown formed which successful pop duo?
18. Which film uses Huey Lewis hit "Power of Love" on the soundtrack?
19. What word links song titles by Cliff Richard, Madonna and the Human League?
20. Who launched a record label called UK?

SCROLL
DOWN

Mick's Answers - Week Number 33

1. BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN
2. BILLIE HOLIDAY
3. JAMES GALWAY
4. CHICAGO
5. BLUE HAWAII
6. THE BEATLES
7. VINCENT
8. AIR SUPPLY
9. CLANCY BROTHERS AND TOMMY MAKEN
10. JAMES
11. ALL ABOUT EVE
12. DON BLACK
13. SELF AID (COULD HAVE BEEN PADDY AID)
14. ROXY CINEMA
15. VIC DAMONE
16. LUDACRIS
17. NEXT
18. BACK TO THE FUTURE
19. HOLIDAY
20. JONATHAN KING