

Mick's Quiz of the Week Number 8

1. Which manager acted in disgust when compared with Margaret Thatcher?
2. Who was West Germany's 1970s marxist defender?
3. Which Arsenal star appeared at an 1980s conservative party rally?
4. Which manager sent a letter of congratulations message to John Wayne from his sick bed?
5. Which of Sunderland's 1973 cup winning team went into politics?
6. Which country's referees went on strike in 1997?
7. Which political issue resulted to England's lowest home crowd against Chile?
8. Politicians Michael Foot and David Owen supported which club?
9. Which former premier league manager insisted he was a communist?
10. Which Scottish team was supported by 2 cabinet ministers?
11. Who was the 1980s Minister of Sport who tried to introduce identity cards?
12. Who linked the green party to Coventry City?
13. Which apartheid apologist Was a chairman at Luton Town?
14. Which politician was behind the dubious success of Marseilles in the early 1990s?
15. Why was Barcelona able to revert to its Catalan name in 1975?
16. Who wore a slogan under his West Han shirt supporting striking Essex firemen in 1998?
17. Which club was forced to add Aqmbrosiana to its name to dilute their Leninist connotations?
18. Which football figure started Forza Italia political party?
19. Which country pulled out of the 1996 African Cup of Nations for political reasons?

For Answers, apply to the Bulgarian Embassy or

SCROLL
DOWN

Mick's Answers - Week Number 8

1. ALEX FERGUSON
2. PAUL BREITNER
3. CHARLIE NICHOLAS
4. GRAEME SOUNESS
5. VIC HALOM
6. SPAIN
7. UNDERGROUND STRIKE
8. PLYMOUTH ARGYLE
9. EGIL OLSEN
10. RAITH ROVERS
11. COLIN MOYNIHAN
12. DAVID LOKE
13. DAVID EVANS
14. BERNARD TAPIE
15. FRANCO DIED
16. IAN WRIGHT
17. INTER MILAN
18. SILVIO BERLUSCONI
19. NIGERIA